PASC Newsletter

Here at the Personal Assistance Services Council (PASC), we value your voice and your role in shaping our workplace. We appreciate your dedication to taking care of those that need it the most.

This is why PASC worked effortlessly with SEIU 2015 to secure a new contract.

As an IHSS homecare worker in the county of Los Angeles, you are represented by SEIU 2015 in bargaining for a contract that will determine your wages and benefits. As part of the ongoing collective bargaining process, we understand that a proposed union contract has been presented for a vote.

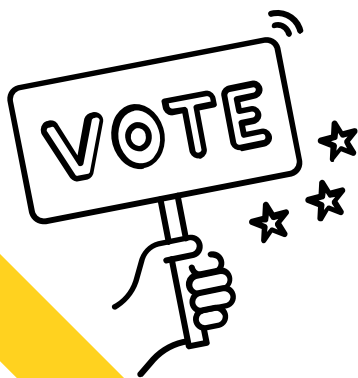

We encourage all workers to participate in the current vote. Your participation is vital to ensure the outcome reflects the collective interests and concerns of all members. Whether you support or oppose the tentative contract proposal, your vote is your opportunity to be heard.

All qualifying members may vote using this link:
